The Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Stewardship of Self Pledge

Stewardship of Self demonstrates the shared commitment, responsibility, and accountability of the Board of Pensions and its Benefits Plan members to enrich every aspect of one's life: spiritual, vocational, financial, and health. Through its many benefits, programs, and services, the Board provides the information and tools necessary to improve self care and achieve a higher quality of life.

As part of Stewardship of Self, I pledge to take better care of myself by:

After printing and completing the pledge, clearly write your full name and email address on the back of the page and mail it to:

The Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Attention: Communications
2000 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103-3298

The form will then be emailed back to you in several weeks as a reminder of your pledge.
